Description of Event-website link if applicable Engaging in conversations with friends or strangers, especially those who may hold different identities, perspectives, and viewpoints can be overwhelming. This is particularly true given the division in our country as we near Election 2024.

Inspired by Monica Guzman's book "I Never Thought Of It That Way: How To Have Fearlessly Curious Conversations In Dangerously Divided Times," Curious Conversations is designed to invite students to learn and practice how to engage in conversations across difference while sharing a meal.

Poster and RoyalSync Event info forthcoming.
