Staff Senate Newsletter - Spring Semester 2019

President's Report
By: Amy Driscoll McNulty

The Staff Senate continues to provide University staff members with opportunities for open communication, professional enrichment and social engagement. In June of 2018, we welcomed new senators, ratified committee memberships and established priorities for the upcoming year. Our standing committees have done an excellent job hosting and collaborating with partners

Survey responses will not be linked to specific individuals; they will remain anonymous. Each constituent group alternates

Professional/Paraprofessional – 3 seats and 2 alternates

The deadline for submitting nominations is 4:30 p.m!

Email your nomination to (bryn.schofield@scranton.edu)

Meg Cullen-Brown Magis Award

The Meg Cullen-Brown

Meg Cullen-Brown's family receiving the proclamation regarding the renaming of the Spirit Award to the Meg-Cullen Brown Magis Award.

Staff Senate Committee Updates

The Staff Recognition & Excellence Committee continues to support the Sursum Corda award process by soliciting nominations and forwarding them to the Human Resources Office for consideration and review. We know that this is not an easy task to select the award winners since so many of our colleagues on campus are deserving of this acknowledgement. The Recognition and Excellence Committee members, along with the entire Staff Senate,offer our congratulations to this year's winners, announced at the Spring departments donated the baskets. View the list of baskets and winners. We thank everyone for your generosity!

)

*

The Communications Committee was honored to plan the Fall Communication Symposium, cosponsored by the Staff Senate and th

Volunteer Opportunities

You don't have to be a Senator to get involved! Below is a full list of our committees that could use your help. Visit our website and contact a senator for more details.

- Communications
- Election & Membership
- Finance
- Social Events & Community Building
- Staff Development